               Miss Wood (Thursday to Friday)

Education Week
In Week 3, from July 28, our school will be celebrating Education Week. Beverly Hills is a very proud public school and we have a number of events to showcase.
On Wednesday, July 30, our students will showcase their talents on stage at Rockdale Plaza. Starting at 1.00 pm until 2.00 p.m., all parents and friends are invited to cheer on our performers. The performers will include our bands, the choirs and our dance groups. On the previous day, Tuesday, July 29, commencing at 2.00-2.30 p.m. for Years 3-6 students and from 2.30-2.55 p.m. for K-2 students, all classrooms will be open for parents to come in and see where so much of the learning at school takes place. Parents are invited to look at their child’s classroom with their child. This is an opportunity for children to articulate to their parents what they are doing in class and show parents their work.
Please take the opportunity to support your children and the school at these special Education Week events.
